

Jesus NEVER mentioned a place called HELL. The word hell in Hebrew should be properly translated as SHEOL and in the Greek HADES, both have the exact same meanings and should be correctly translated as GRAVE; never does it denote a place of punishment; it simply means a place where the SOUL of the deceased goes when the body dies, whether that soul being GOOD or BAD makes no difference.

The other mistranslation for Hell is the Greek word GEHENNA, which was the name of the narrow, rocky valley just south of Jerusalem, which was basically the city's dump, where the bodies of criminals, the poor who had no money left for burial, along with dead animals and all the trash of the city, would be burning continually night and day. When Jesus spoke of Gehenna, He used the term metaphorically concerning the value of living a righteous life, when He said "if your hand offends you cut it off, for It is better for you to enter into life maimed than to have two hands go into GEHENNA, into the fire which is not quenched" Any person with an ounce of common sense would realize Jesus did not intend a person to literally cut off their hand!

The Bible declares that Jesus is the Saviour of the world and ALL things will be reconciled through His death and eventually every knee will bow and every tongue confess He is Lord

Colossians 1:20 Philippians 2:10

We're not asking you to join a group and certainly not asking you to attend any unbiblical church system; we just ask you to embrace the wonderful truth that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and the Saviour of the whole world

Question What age does the bible state a person is responsible for their sins?

Answer: it doesn't. On the contrary the bible declares: God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them. 2 Corinthians 5:19. And through Him (Jesus) having made peace through the blood of His cross, it pleased the Father to reconcile all things to Himself through Him, whether the things on earth or the things in Heaven. Colossians 1:20. The bottom line is.; Jesus Christ took care of ALL sin for ALL humanity for ALL time!

My dear friend, please don't believe the lies that Christianity has been telling you, that the vast majority of mankind will go to a made-up place called Hell, while only a small select group of good people make it to heaven.

Jesus said to the religious people of His day; that the tax collectors and the prostitutes would enter the kingdom of God before them. Mathew 21:31.

Why is this you ask? because the bible states, that God resists the proud, religious people but gives Grace to the humble. James 4:6

Jesus Christ said; if I am lifted up from the earth I will draw ALL MEN unto me, ALL means ALL!. John 12:32

The fact is your heavenly Father expressed His love to you through the death, resurrection and ascension of His son... because He gave Himself as a ransom for ALL which WILL be testified in due time. 1Timothy 2:6

No matter who you are or what you've done, the fact is Jesus loves you and died for you, along with every man, woman and child who has ever lived and indeed ever will live.

My dear friend it's inevitable, the choice is yours, you can except Christ in this life or be reconciled by him in the next, but one day your heart will melt and you'll fall into the arms of a loving Saviour.
